

February's Favorite of the month was presented by Mark Krider. George Kopenec who usually makes these presentations was out recovering from surgery. We all wish George and Rose the best and hope to see them soon.

The February 2024 Favorite is AnnualCreditReport.com

From this web site anyone can access credit reports from the three largest credit reporting agencies in the country, Experian, Equifax, and Transunion, for free. It's a good thing to check your credit report periodically to make sure nothing is there that you're not aware of.

There's more to the game than a score.

How you play changes your score. Details such as how much credit you have, how much you owe, and how often you pay affect your credit scores. Do you know what else does?

What affects your credit score?

Your credit reports matter.

- Credit reports may affect your mortgage rates, credit card approvals, apartment requests, or even your job application.
- Reviewing credit reports helps you catch signs of identity theft early.

FREE Credit Reports. Federal law allows you to:

- Get a free copy of your credit report every 12 months from each credit reporting company.
- Ensure that the information on all of your credit reports is correct and up to date.
